Directions:

Lexington is a small town just west of Columbia near I-20. The Association office is located in a one-story brick house on Powell Drive, right off Highway 378 (Sunset Blvd.). Powell Drive is a short, dead-end side street off US-378 approximately 3.5 miles from the I-20 junction. There is no traffic light at Powell Drive, but the street is between two other traffic lights along US-378. Nearby landmarks include (coming from the west) Office Depot and Columbia Eye Clinic and (coming from the east) 14 Carrot, a health food store with a large carrot on its store sign. Opposite Powell Drive is the driveway entrance into the parking lot of Uno's restaurant. On the corner of US-378 and Powell Drive is Gateway Academy, a child care center. The Association building is the third driveway on the left.

From I-20: Exit at US-378 (Exit 61 – Sunset Blvd.), drive towards Lexington for approximately 3.5 miles. Powell Drive is the street at Gateway Academy and across from Uno's restaurant. It is easiest to make the left turn if you pass Powell and turn left at the next traffic light onto Palmetto Parkway. Then take the first left, which will end at Powell Drive, and then turn right onto Powell.

From US-378 (from the west): US-378 is called both Sunset Blvd. and Columbia Avenue in Lexington. If you are coming from the west, you will be on Columbia Avenue until you reach the junction with SC 6. Continue following the signs for US-378 as the street curves to the left and becomes Sunset Blvd. Follow the street until you get to Powell Drive, where you will turn right. Landmarks include Gateway Academy, which is a child care center, and a Uno's restaurant. The Association is the third driveway on the left.

From US-378 (from the east): If you are coming from the Columbia area, US-378 is called Sunset Blvd. when you reach Lexington. Powell Drive is about 3.5 miles past the I-20 intersection. Powell Drive is the street at Gateway Academy and across from Uno's restaurant. It is easiest to make the left turn if you pass Powell and turn left at the next traffic light onto Palmetto Parkway. Then take the first left, which will end at Powell Drive, and then turn right onto Powell.
